From the East

Greetings,

I am writing on a special occasion to inform you of an upcoming special election on December 27th —St. Johns Night. The general elections were held on December 10th and officers were elected: Richard Lavery - Worshipful Master; Pete Shipley - Sr. Warden; Milledge Murphey - Jr. Warden; Bob Cooper - Secretary; and Wallace Zetrouer - Treasurer.

I write to you today because the Worshipful Master-elect, Brother Lavery, has decided not to be installed. Brother Lavery did not come upon this decision in a carefree or capricious manner; rather, he made careful and deliberate considerations and arrived upon this decision.

As his brothers, we must respect Brother Lavery's primary obligation to his family.

On behalf of the members, I want to publicly thank Brother Lavery for his candor and timing regarding this issue. His thoughtfulness and timely decision have provided us an opportunity to hold another election and avoid any delay in the installation of new officers.

So, I urge you to be a lodge on December 27th, 2003 at 8:00 PM for a wonderful St. Johns celebration AND a special election.

Fraternally,

Bro. Matt
